

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

Anthony Sambrano,)	No. CV 11-0119-PHX-GMS (LOA)
Plaintiff,)	ORDER
vs.)
Sergeant Opferbeck, et al.,) Defendants.)

On January 18, 2011, Plaintiff Anthony Sambrano, who was then confined in the Arizona State Prison Complex-Kingman, filed a pro se civil rights Complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and an Application to Proceed In Forma Pauperis. (Doc. 1, 2.) On March 30, 2011, Plaintiff filed a Notice of Change of Address that reflected Plaintiff had been released. (Doc. 5.) In an Order filed April 4, 2011, Plaintiff was given 30 days to either pay the $350.00 filing fee or to show cause why he was unable to pay the fee within 120 days of his release. (Doc. 6.) On April 25, 2011, Plaintiff filed a letter in response to the April 4 Order. (Doc. 7.) In his Letter, Plaintiff stated that he was “applying for leave to proceed in forma pauperis without prepayment of costs or fees or the nec[es]sity of giving security therefore.” (Id.) He also stated that he had “recently [been] released from the Arizona Department of Corrections” and that he was “unemployed.” (Id.) In an Order filed June 24, 2011, the Court found the Letter failed to comply with the Court’s April 4 Order. (Doc. 8.) The Court granted Plaintiff another 30 days in which to either pay the $350.00 filing fee or to file a compliant

1 “Response” to the April 4 Order, including being made under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C.
2 § 1746 (oath requirement may be satisfied when a person declares under penalty of perjury that 3 the submission is true and correct and signs and dates the document).

4 Plaintiff has filed an Application to Proceed In Forma Pauperis without prepayment
5 of fees or costs, which he has signed under penalty of perjury. (Doc. 9.) The Court construes 6 the Application as a “Response,” which establishes that Plaintiff is currently unable to pay the 7 filing fee for this action.¹ Accordingly, the Show Cause Order will be discharged. The Court
8 will order Defendants Opferbeck, Moyer, Quillman, Casados, Lopez, Fortune, Smoke, Coffey, 9 Simpson, Knippel, Dunnington, Feller, and Rosemary R.N. to answer Counts I, II, III, IV, V, and 10 VIII of the Complaint and will dismiss the remaining claims and Defendants without prejudice.

11 I. Statutory Screening of Prisoner Complaints

12 The Court is required to screen complaints brought by prisoners seeking relief against 13 a governmental entity or an officer or an employee of a governmental entity.² 28 U.S.C.
14 § 1915A(a). The Court must dismiss a complaint or portion thereof if a plaintiff has raised 15 claims that are legally frivolous or malicious, that fail to state a claim upon which relief may 16 be granted, or that seek monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. 28 17 U.S.C. § 1915A(b)(1), (2).

18 A pleading must contain a “short and plain statement of the claim showing that the 19 pleader is entitled to relief.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2) (emphasis added). While Rule 8 does not 20 demand detailed factual allegations, “it demands more than an unadorned, the-defendant-21 unlawfully-harmed-me accusation.” Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 129 S. Ct. 1937, 1949 (2009).

23 ¹ According to the website for the Arizona Department of Corrections, Plaintiff was 24 released on March 18, 2011. See http://www.azcorrections.gov/Inmate_DataSearch/
25 results_Minh.aspx?InmateNumber=133736&LastName=SAMBRANO&FNMI=A&Search
26 Type=SearchInet (Last visited July 13, 2011).

27 ² Because Plaintiff was a “prisoner” within the meaning of the Prison Litigation Reform 28 Act (PLRA) when he filed this action and is proceeding in forma pauperis, his Complaint is subject to screening by the Court.

1 “Threadbare recitals of the elements of a cause of action, supported by mere conclusory 2 statements, do not suffice.” Id.

3 “[A] complaint must contain sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to ‘state a claim 4 to relief that is plausible on its face.’” Id. (quoting Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S.
5 544, 570 (2007)). A claim is plausible “when the plaintiff pleads factual content that allows 6 the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the misconduct
7 alleged.” Id. “Determining whether a complaint states a plausible claim for relief [is] . . . a 8 context-specific task that requires the reviewing court to draw on its judicial experience and 9 common sense.” Id. at 1950. Thus, although a plaintiff’s specific factual allegations may be 10 consistent with a constitutional claim, a court must assess whether there are other “more likely 11 explanations” for a defendant’s conduct. Id. at 1951.

12 But as the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit has instructed, courts 13 must “continue to construe pro se filings liberally.” Hebbe v. Pliler, 627 F.3d 338, 342 (9th 14 Cir. 2010). A “complaint [filed by a pro se prisoner] ‘must be held to less stringent standards 15 than formal pleadings drafted by lawyers.’” Id. (quoting Erickson v. Pardus, 551 U.S. 89, 94 16 (2007) (per curiam)).

17 II. Complaint

18 Plaintiff alleges eight counts for excessive use of force, denial of constitutionally 19 adequate medical care, and due process. Plaintiff sues the following Phoenix Police Officers: 20 Sergeant Opferbeck, Michael Moyer, Daniel Quillman, Albert Casados, Lourdes Lopez, 21 Mercedes Fortune, James Smoke, and Ethan Coffey (collectively, police Defendants). He also 22 sues the following Phoenix Fire Department firefighters or paramedics: Captain Robert R.
23 Simpson, Jason E. Knippel, Corrine M. Dunnington, and Donna J. Feller (collectively, fire 24 department Defendants). He further sues the following employees of the Maricopa County 25 Hospital: Daniel M. Caruso, Dr. Erin Kelly, Marc R. Matthews, Elizabeth Estrada, M. Sampter
26 (or Sumpter), Vu Nauyen (or Vu Nawyten), Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN) Reginald Herd, 27 Registered Nurse (RN) Rosemary, and Frances Hernandez, M.A (collectively, hospital

1 Defendants). Plaintiff seeks injunctive, compensatory, and punitive relief.

2 Plaintiff alleges the following facts in his Complaint: On the evening of January 25, 3 2009, Plaintiff was surrounded by the police Defendants as he left a restaurant. They ordered 4 Plaintiff to stop and get on the ground. Plaintiff complied with the orders by laying on the 5 ground and holding his hands behind his back. Plaintiff was ordered not to move and warned 6 that the officers were pointing tasers at him. "Officer John Doe" cuffed one wrist, but as he 7 was preparing or attempting to cuff the other, he jerked Plaintiff's arm and yelled at Plaintiff 8 to stop resisting. (Doc. 1 at 3.)³ The surrounding officers began kicking Plaintiff and dropping 9 down on one knee on Plaintiff's spine, neck, and head. The officers stopped after Plaintiff 10 yelled they were killing him. Plaintiff's other wrist was cuffed and he was raised to a seated 11 position. Plaintiff was in a cold sweat, felt dizzy, felt "extreme pain" all over his body, his 12 chest felt heavy, he had difficulty breathing, and both eyes were swollen.⁴ (Id. at 4A.) Plaintiff 13 asked the officers why they had attacked him, but they told him to shut-up and to not be a baby.
14 Plaintiff pleaded for medical attention and was told that paramedics would be called.

15 Fire department Defendants Simpson, Knippel, Dunnington, and Feller arrived but 16 indicated that nothing was wrong with Plaintiff and told the police officers that Plaintiff was 17 faking to avoid jail. Plaintiff asked Captain Simpson to have him taken to a hospital or given 18 oxygen. Simpson said that Plaintiff had to first sign a consent to treatment. Plaintiff signed 19 the form, which he was unable to read due to his swollen eyes, but rather than providing 20 treatment or taking him to the hospital, the paramedics left.

21 Two police officers then dragged Plaintiff by his elbows, with his hands cuffed behind 22
23

24
25 ³ Plaintiff submitted several pages that were not numbered. The Court refers to those 26 pages by their sequential order and an "A" to distinguish them from the numbered pages that are part of the court-approved form complaint.

27 ⁴ As discussed below, Plaintiff was later found to have broken ribs and a collapsed lung 28 that required insertion of a chest tube.

1 him, to a police cruiser and transported him to the jail.⁵ The officers dragged Plaintiff from 2 the cruiser to be booked, but booking officers refused to do so due to Plaintiff's injuries and 3 said that Plaintiff needed to go to a hospital. The officers again dragged Plaintiff by the elbows 4 back to the cruiser and eventually transported him to Maricopa County Hospital, where they 5 again dragged him from the cruiser into the hospital.⁶

6 In the hospital, the officers told hospital staff that "nothing" was wrong with Plaintiff 7 and that he was faking. Defendant Nurse Rosemary told Plaintiff to lay flat on the gurney, 8 despite Plaintiff's repeated protestations that he was unable to do so due to the pain and 9 difficulty breathing and he asked her for asked for oxygen. Rosemary repeatedly told Plaintiff 10 to shut-up and stop acting like a baby because he was disturbing other patients. When Plaintiff 11 continued to cry out, Rosemary moved to an isolated room with an officer; the officer also 12 told Plaintiff to shut-up because he was starting to make the officer mad. During the night, 13 Rosemary came in to taunt Plaintiff and call him names. After a shift change, Dr. Kelly came 14 into the room and told Nurse Rosemary to start two IVs because Plaintiff was in shock and 15 "fixin to die on you." (Doc. 1 at 7.) Rosemary started the IVs. Dr. Kelly told Plaintiff she was 16 going to give him something to knock him out so that she could insert a chest tube because his 17 right lung had collapsed. Plaintiff also had broken ribs. After the tube had been inserted, 18 Plaintiff was able to breathe. He was transported to the Lower Buckeye Jail infirmary, where 19 he remained for several days, and was heavily medicated by IV morphine and pills until the 20 chest tube was removed.

21 III. Failure to State a Claim

22 To state a claim under § 1983, a plaintiff must allege facts supporting that (1) the 23 conduct about which he complains was committed by a person acting under the color of state 24

25 ⁵ Plaintiff contends that these officers repeatedly parked farther away than necessary 26 and then dragged Plaintiff back and forth into the jail and then the hospital.

27 ⁶ Plaintiff alleges that they took him to the wrong hospital at first because they did not 28 know the location of Maricopa County Hospital.

1 law and (2) the conduct deprived him of a federal constitutional or statutory right. Wood v.
2 Ostrander, 879 F.2d 583, 587 (9th Cir. 1989). In addition, to state a valid constitutional claim, 3 a plaintiff must allege that he suffered a specific injury as a result of the conduct of a particular 4 defendant and he must allege an affirmative link between the injury and the conduct of that 5 defendant. Rizzo v. Goode, 423 U.S. 362, 371-72, 377 (1976).

6 Further, to state a claim against a defendant, “[a] plaintiff must allege facts, not simply 7 conclusions, that show that an individual was personally involved in the deprivation of his civil 8 rights.” Barren v. Harrington, 152 F.3d 1193, 1194 (9th Cir. 1998). For an individual to be 9 liable in his official capacity, a plaintiff must allege that the official acted as a result of a 10 policy, practice, or custom. See Cortez v. County of Los Angeles, 294 F.3d 1186, 1188 (9th 11 Cir. 2001). In addition, there is no respondeat superior liability under § 1983, so a 12 defendant’s position as the supervisor of someone who allegedly violated a plaintiff’s 13 constitutional rights does not make him liable. Monell v. Dep’t of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658, 14 691 (1978); Taylor v. List, 880 F.2d 1040, 1045 (9th Cir. 1989). A supervisor in his 15 individual capacity, “is only liable for constitutional violations of his subordinates if the 16 supervisor participated in or directed the violations, or knew of the violations and failed to act 17 to prevent them.” Taylor, 880 F.2d at 1045.

18 A. Caruso, Matthews, Estrada, Sampter, Nauyen, Herd, & Hernandez

19 Plaintiff sues hospital Defendants Caruso, Matthews, Estrada, Sampter, Nauyen, Herd, 20 and Hernandez. Plaintiff fails to allege any facts to support that Defendants Caruso, Matthews, 21 Estrada, Sampter, Nauyen, Herd, and Hernandez violated any constitutional right. Therefore, 22 he fails to state a claim against any of these Defendants and they will be dismissed.

23 B. Excessive Force

24 Plaintiff designates Count I as a claim for excessive use of force and Count II as a claim 25 for violation of the cruel and unusual punishment clause of the Eighth Amendment. He 26 designates Count IV as a claim for violation of contemporary standards of decency based in 27

1 part on the excessive use of force.⁷ The Court treats these counts, or portion thereof, as 2 asserting a claim for excessive use of force against the police Defendants.

3 A claim that police officers used excessive force in the course of an arrest arises under 4 the Fourth Amendment, rather than the Eighth Amendment. See Graham v. Connor, 490 U.S.
5 386, 395 (1989); Hooper v. County of San Diego, 629 F.3d 1127, 1133 (9th Cir. 2011); Bryan
6 v. MacPherson, 630 F.3d 805, 823-24 (9th Cir. 2010). To state an excessive force claim, a 7 plaintiff must allege facts to support that the force used by police officers was objectively 8 unreasonable under the circumstances. Graham, 490 U.S. at 395. The pertinent question is 9 whether the use of force was “objectively reasonable in light of the facts and circumstances 10 confronting [the officers], without regard to their underlying intent or motivation.” Id. at 397.
11 An arrestee’s resistance may support the use of force even if officers lack probable cause for 12 an arrest. Brooks v. City of Seattle, 599 F.3d 1018, 1022 (9th Cir. 2010). Nevertheless, the 13 existence of probable cause may be considered as a part of the totality of the circumstances.
14 Id. Other relevant circumstances include the severity of the suspected crime at issue, whether 15 the suspect posed an immediate threat to the safety of officers or others, and whether the 16 suspect was actively resisting arrest or attempting to evade arrest. Miller v. Clark County, 340 17 F.3d 959, 964 (9th Cir. 2003); see Bryan, 2010 WL 4925422, at *14-17.

18 Plaintiff sufficiently states a claim against the named police Defendants for use of 19 excessive force and these Defendants will be required to respond to Plaintiff’s excessive force 20 allegations in the Complaint. However, Plaintiff’s allegations against the unnamed police 21 officers who repeatedly dragged him by his elbows will be dismissed without prejudice for two 22 reasons. First, Plaintiff did not include any fictitiously-named John Does as Defendants.
23 Second, even if he had, Rule 10(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires the 24 plaintiff to include the names of the parties in the action. As a practical matter, it is impossible 25 in most instances for the United States Marshal or his designee to serve a summons and 26

27 ⁷ Plaintiff otherwise asserts a violation in Count IV based on the denial of medical care.
28 This portion of Count IV is addressed below.

1 complaint or amended complaint upon an anonymous defendant. The Ninth Circuit has held 2 that where identity is unknown prior to the filing of a complaint, a plaintiff should be given an 3 opportunity through discovery to identify the unknown defendants, unless it is clear that 4 discovery would not uncover the identities, or that the complaint would be dismissed on other 5 grounds. Wakefield v. Thompson, 177 F.3d 1160, 1163 (9th Cir. 1999) (citing Gillespie v.
6 Civiletti, 629 F.2d 637, 642 (9th Cir. 1980)). Plaintiff may attempt to learn the identities of 7 the Doe officers whom he believes violated his constitutional rights and thereafter seek leave 8 to amend his Complaint to name them.

9 C. Medical Care

10 Plaintiff designates Counts III, IV (in part), V, and VIII as claims for denial of 11 constitutionally adequate medical care. To state a claim for denial of constitutionally adequate 12 medical care, a plaintiff must allege facts to support that he has or had a serious medical need 13 and that a particular defendant acted with deliberate indifference to that need. See Estelle v.
14 Gamble, 429 U.S. 97, 104-05 (1976); Lolli v. County of Orange, 351 F.3d 410, 418-19 (9th 15 Cir. 2003). To allege a serious medical need, a plaintiff must set forth facts to support that the 16 “failure to treat a prisoner’s condition could result in further significant injury or the 17 ‘unnecessary and wanton infliction of pain.’” Jett v. Penner, 439 F.3d 1091, 1096 (9th Cir.
18 2006) (quoting McGuckin v. Smith, 974 F.2d 1050, 1059 (9th Cir. 1991), overruled on other 19 grounds by WMX Techs, Inc. v. Miller, 104 F.3d 1133 (9th Cir. 1997) (en banc)). A plaintiff 20 must also allege facts to support that a defendant was deliberately indifferent to a serious 21 medical need. “Deliberate indifference is a high legal standard.” Toguchi v. Chung, 391 F.3d 22 1051, 1060 (9th Cir. 2004). Deliberate indifference may occur if “prison officials deny, delay 23 or intentionally interfere with medical treatment.” Hutchinson v. United States, 838 F.2d 390, 24 394 (9th Cir.1988). Mere negligence, however, “in diagnosing or treating a medical condition, 25 without more, does not violate a prisoner’s Eighth Amendment rights.” Lopez, 203 F.3d at 26 1132 (quoting Hutchinson, 838 F.2d at 394). Further, a delay in receiving medical care, 27 without more, is insufficient to state a claim against a jailor for deliberate indifference unless

1 the plaintiff can show that the delay in treatment harmed him. Shapley v. Nevada Bd. of State 2 Prison Comm'rs, 766 F.2d 404, 407 (9th Cir. 1985). A difference in medical opinion also 3 does not amount to deliberate indifference. See Toguchi, 391 F.3d at 1058. Rather, to prevail 4 on a claim involving choices between alternative courses of treatment, a prisoner must show 5 that the chosen course was medically unacceptable under the circumstances and was chosen 6 in conscious disregard of an excessive risk to the prisoner's health. Id.

7 In Counts III, IV (in part), and V, Plaintiff alleges that all of the Defendants acted with 8 deliberate indifference to his serious medical needs. In Count VIII, he alleges that the fire 9 department Defendants ignored and failed to treat his obvious injuries or to have him 10 transported to the hospital.

11 Plaintiff sufficiently alleges facts to support that he had obvious and serious injuries 12 following his arrest and that despite obvious serious injuries and his repeated entreaties for 13 medical attention, the police and fire department Defendants ignored his injuries and/or 14 delayed providing or obtaining medical care. Plaintiff also sufficiently alleges that Nurse 15 Rosemary repeatedly disregarded his obvious injuries and placed him in an isolated room so 16 that his entreaties for assistance would not disturb other patients in the emergency room.
17 These Defendants will be required to respond to Count III.

18 However, Plaintiff fails to allege facts to support that Dr. Kelly acted with deliberate 19 indifference to his serious medical needs. Indeed, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant Kelly 20 promptly treated him after seeing him. Because Plaintiff fails to allege facts to support that 21 Dr. Kelly acted with deliberate indifference to his serious medical needs, Counts III, IV (in 22 part), V, and VIII will be dismissed against Kelly.

23 D. Due Process

24 In Counts VI and VII, Plaintiff contends that the excessive use of force and deliberate 25 indifference to his serious medical injuries also violated his due process and equal protection 26 rights. "[I]f a constitutional claim is covered by a specific constitutional provision, such as the 27 Fourth or Eighth Amendment, the claim must be analyzed under the standard appropriate to that

1 specific provision, not under the rubric of substantive due process [under the Fourteenth 2 Amendment].” Crown Point Dev., Inc. v. City of Sun Valley, 506 F.3d 851, 853 (9th Cir.
3 2007) (citing Graham v. Connor, 490 U.S. 386, 388 (1989)); see Albright v. Oliver, 510 U.S.
4 266, 273 (1994). Because Plaintiff’s excessive force and medical claims are covered by 5 specific constitutional provisions under the Fourth and Eighth Amendments, Plaintiff cannot 6 state due process claims based on the same facts.

7 The Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment provides that a state may 8 not “deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws,” which is 9 essentially a direction that all persons similarly situated should be treated alike. U.S. Const., 10 amend. XIV; see City of Cleburne v. Cleburne Living Ctr., Inc., 473 U.S. 432, 439 (1985). A 11 state practice that interferes with a fundamental right or that discriminates against a suspect 12 class of individuals is subject to strict scrutiny. Massachusetts Bd. of Ret. v. Murgia, 427 U.S.
13 307, 312 (1976); see City of Cleburne, 473 U.S. at 441. Absent allegations that he is a 14 member of a suspect class, or that a fundamental right has been violated, a plaintiff must allege 15 facts to support that he has been intentionally treated differently from others who are similarly 16 situated without a reasonable basis therefor. See Village of Willowbrook v. Olech, 528 U.S.
17 562, 564 (2000). Conclusory allegations do not suffice. See Village of Arlington Heights v.
18 Metropolitan Hous. Dev. Corp., 429 U.S. 252, 265 (1977).

19 Plaintiff fails to allege facts to support that he is a member of a suspect class or the 20 violation of a fundamental right. He also fails to allege facts to support that he was treated 21 differently than similarly-situated persons. Accordingly, Plaintiff fails to state a claim for 22 violation of his equal protection rights.

23 For the reasons discussed, Counts VI and VII will be dismissed for failure to state a 24 claim.

25 IV. Claims for Which an Answer Will be Required

26 As noted above, Plaintiff sufficiently alleges facts to support that the police Defendants 27 used excessive force against him. He also sufficiently alleges facts to support that the police

1 and the fire department Defendants and Maricopa County Registered Nurse Rosemary acted 2 with deliberate indifference to his serious medical needs. These Defendants will be required
3 to respond to Counts I-V and VII.

4 V. Warnings

5 A. Release

6 Plaintiff must pay the unpaid balance of the filing fee within 120 days of his release.
7 Also, within 30 days of his release, he must either (1) notify the Court that he intends to pay 8 the balance or (2) show good cause, in writing, why he cannot. Failure to comply may result 9 in dismissal of this action.

10 B. Address Changes

11 Plaintiff must file and serve a notice of a change of address in accordance with Rule 12 83.3(d) of the Local Rules of Civil Procedure. Plaintiff must not include a motion for other 13 relief with a notice of change of address. Failure to comply may result in dismissal of this 14 action.

15 C. Copies

16 Plaintiff must serve Defendants, or counsel if an appearance has been entered, a copy 17 of every document that he files. Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(a). Each filing must include a certificate 18 stating that a copy of the filing was served. Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(d). Also, Plaintiff must submit 19 an additional copy of every filing for use by the Court. See LRCiv 5.4. Failure to comply may 20 result in the filing being stricken without further notice to Plaintiff.

21 D. Possible Dismissal

22 If Plaintiff fails to timely comply with every provision of this Order, including these 23 warnings, the Court may dismiss this action without further notice. See Ferdik v. Bonzelet, 24 963 F.2d 1258, 1260-61 (9th Cir. 1992) (a district court may dismiss an action for failure to 25 comply with any order of the Court).

26 IT IS ORDERED:

27 (1) Plaintiff's Application to Proceed In Forma Pauperis is construed as a 28

1 “Response” to the Court’s April 4, 2011 Show Cause Order, doc. 6. (Doc. 9.)

2 (2) The April 4, 2011 Show Cause Order, doc. 6, is discharged based upon 3 Plaintiff’s Response, doc. 9.

4 (3) Counts VI and VII and Defendants Caruso, Kelly, Hernandez, Matthews, Estrada, 5 Sampter, Nauyen, and Herd are dismissed without prejudice.

6 (4) Defendants Opferbeck, Moyer, Quillman, Casados, Lopez, Fortune, Smoke, 7 Coffey, Simpson, Knippel, Dunnington, Feller, and Maricopa County Hospital Registered 8 Nurse Rosemary must answer Counts I-V and VIII.

9 (5) The Clerk of Court must send Plaintiff a service packet including the Complaint 10 (Doc. 1), this Order, and both summons and request for waiver forms for Defendants 11 Opferbeck, Moyer, Quillman, Casados, Lopez, Fortune, Smoke, Coffey, Simpson, Knippel, 12 Dunnington, Feller, and Maricopa County Hospital Registered Nurse Rosemary.

13 (6) Plaintiff must complete and return the service packet to the Clerk of Court 14 within 21 days of the date of filing of this Order. The United States Marshal will not provide 15 service of process if Plaintiff fails to comply with this Order.

16 (7) If Plaintiff does not either obtain a waiver of service of the summons or 17 complete service of the Summons and Complaint on a Defendant within 120 days of the filing 18 of the Complaint or within 60 days of the filing of this Order, whichever is later, the action
19 may be dismissed as to each Defendant not served. Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m); LRCiv 20 16.2(b)(2)(B)(i).

21 (8) The United States Marshal must retain the Summons, a copy of the Complaint, 22 and a copy of this Order for future use.

23 (9) The United States Marshal must notify Defendants of the commencement of this 24 action and request waiver of service of the summons pursuant to Rule 4(d) of the Federal Rules 25 of Civil Procedure. The notice to Defendants must include a copy of this Order. The Marshal 26 must immediately file signed waivers of service of the summons. If a waiver of service 27 of summons is returned as undeliverable or is not returned by a Defendant within 30

1 days from the date the request for waiver was sent by the Marshal, the Marshal must:

2 (a) personally serve copies of the Summons, Complaint, and this Order upon 3 Defendant pursuant to Rule 4(e)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; and

4 (b) within 10 days after personal service is effected, file the return of service 5 for Defendant, along with evidence of the attempt to secure a waiver of service of the 6 summons and of the costs subsequently incurred in effecting service upon Defendant.
7 The costs of service must be enumerated on the return of service form (USM-285) and 8 must include the costs incurred by the Marshal for photocopying additional copies of 9 the Summons, Complaint, or this Order and for preparing new process receipt and 10 return forms (USM-285), if required. Costs of service will be taxed against the 11 personally served Defendant pursuant to Rule 4(d)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil 12 Procedure, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

13 (10) A Defendant who agrees to waive service of the Summons and Complaint 14 must return the signed waiver forms to the United States Marshal, not the Plaintiff.

15 (11) Defendant must answer the Complaint or otherwise respond by appropriate
